

Printed from THE DAILY JOURNAL, dtd. 10/07/2013

Volunteers honored at Samaritan House

October 07, 2013, 05:00 AM

Samaritan House presented its highest honor, the Kelly Award, to long-time volunteers Ana Maria Jackson and Paula Corona at the organization's annual Volunteer Recognition Event at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Foster City on Sept. 12. Jackson and Corona, who are sisters, received the award in recognition of the many hours of extraordinary service they have given to the organization and to the community. Shown at the presentation are (left to right) Samaritan House Volunteer Manager Melissa Moss; Honoree Ana Maria Jackson; Honoree Paula Corona; and Samaritan House Board President Patty Hsiu. Since 1974, Samaritan House has served low-income families and individuals in San Mateo County, meeting basic needs for food, clothing, shelter, and health care.

Tom Jung